

You're invited to a very special event....

Please join us for light refreshments and experience the joy and sense of memory that is captured "Inside Yesterdays and the Threshold of Tomorrows"

Pip Beauvoir is a painter and designer from the Blue Mountains. Using oil, Pip predominantly paints on board & sometimes on canvas.

Using her hands, palette knives, brushes and nails to scratch into the surface, Pip enjoys the malleability of oil paint and works with many layers of construction and destruction.

Pip says - "Art is not the place – it is the construct of that memory."

Influenced by an interview she listened to with Robyn Davidson the author of Tracks, it was that interview that inspired her to go traveling to Europe solo at age 15 in search of art and culture.

During that trip, Pip found herself in Paris, it was there that she became inspired by Monet especially his Water Lillie paintings which are held at the Musee de l'Orangerie.

Pip's work is of many things, though the foundation of her paintings are memory and emotion, thus supplying the viewer with sensory indulgence through the beautiful and vibrant colour that is produced before you.

Please join us Saturday the 19th of May, from 11am - 3pm, 6 Ross Street, Glenbrook to meet the artist and discover the joy of following your passions.
