

PENRITH CITY LOCAL BUSINESS AWARDS

Imperial Hair Studio took out Outstanding Hairdresser.

This year's Penrith City Local Business Awards was a sparkling spectacular that provided a fitting finale to the annual event.

This year's winners exchanged exuberant hugs while cheers filled the room as they made their way to the stage on Wednesday, September 11.

Awards founder and Precedent Productions Managing Director Steve Loe said the evening was an exciting culmination to a successful awards program.

"The Local Business Awards recognise the vital role business people play in the lives of their communities," he said this week.

"The presentation evening not only sees the announcement of the category winners but is an opportunity to celebrate the achievements of all the finalists.

"We had a sell-out crowd that included our finalists, their families and staff, as well as our sponsors and local dignitaries, who helped to present awards to the winners."

The Western Weekender captured all the excitement as the finalists in each category were announced, complete with images on the big screen, followed by huge cheers as the winners' names were read out and they took to the stage to claim their trophies.

"The winners' speeches are always heartfelt and emotional," Loe said.

"This year was no exception."

As official media partner for the Penrith City Local Business Awards, the The Western Weekender today publishes a winners' feature, that recognises all category winners from the presentation evening earlier this month.

"Of course, the awards are only possible with the support of major sponsors NOVA Employment, SCB Legal and support sponsors, Westfield Penrith, White Key Marketing, Penrith Valley Chamber of Commerce, Nepean Regional Security, Bx Networking, Penrith Homemaker Centre, Southlands Shopping Centre and Nepean Village," Loe said.

"Their involvement proves their commitment to their community and the businesses that thrive there."

Loe also thanked Western Sydney Conference Centre for the high quality food and service it provided.

"Thanks to them it was a five-star occasion," he said.

"I would also like to acknowledge the incredible entertainment on the evening and our fabulous Jeremiah Hartmann who kept the evening flowing smoothly."

Businesses can register for the 2025 Local Business Awards at www.thebusinessawards.com.au.
