Andrew Reeves from One Agency Reeves Properties has dominated the recent ratemyagent.com.au awards in Melbourne. Mr Reeves won the Agent of the Year Award for NSW, while he was named the #5 agent in Australia - an incredible achievement.

He was rated as the #1 agent in Emu Plains, Emu Heights and Kingswood - proving that Andrew Reeves leaves his clients feeling impressed.

The RateMyAgent Agent of the Year Awards are the only awards to recognise agents and agencies who have been the most consistently recommended by the people that matter – clients who have sold or purchased property in the last 12 months.

Now in their third year, the RateMyAgent annual awards have become an industry leader and winning a title is held in high regard by agents, agencies and consumers. The 2017 winners give people searching for an agent a clear indication of who is leading the way in customer service for the real estate industry in Australia.

The Agent of the Year Awards are the only awards in Australia, which recognise agents and agencies on a suburb level and have a specific focus on customer satisfaction. The awards also honour leading agents and agencies on a city, state and national level, highlighting the most recommended across the country so sellers can make informed choices.

The achievements of Andrew Reeves prove there's only one choice you can trust when it comes to selling your home.
